Re: Price v. City of New York, Simmons et al, 15-CV-5871, Plaintiff's Letter Requesting More Time for Discovery

Dear Judge Failla:

I am the Plaintiff in the above-captioned matter. I write to request an extension for Discovery. I am hopeful that I have secured counsel to represent me. They are currently running conflicts and I should know within the next two weeks if they will take my case. It looks promising. Please may I request another six month extension for Discovery as the new firm will need to bring itself up to speed before proceeding with depositions et al? If they don't end up taking my case I will need more time to begin the discovery process alone as a pro se litigant. I have asked the City Law Department their thoughts on this matter and have ~~yet to hear~~ a response. Thank you in advance for your kind consideration of my request.

Application GRANTED. At the November 14, 2018 conference, the Court stayed all discovery deadlines. In other words, Ms. Price and the City Law Department do not have to meet any discovery deadlines while Ms. Price tries to obtain counsel. Ms. Price is ORDERED to notify the Court, via letter, by February 6, 2019, whether she has been able to obtain counsel. At that point, the Court will likely set a conference to discuss setting a new discovery schedule that will allow any new counsel enough time to come up to speed.
